Who is eligible?

The scholarship is open to all self-funding applicants to the MBA programme who are employed by an NGO or a Non-profit organization. Candidates will only be considered for the award if they have successfully applied for and been admitted to the MBA programme before the scholarship deadline.

Criteria for awarding the scholarship

The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of future professional and leadership potential, as demonstrated by the quality of the essay and the recommendation submitted in support of the scholarship application.

We will also be looking for candidates who can demonstrate a proven track record of success (educational and professional) through their MBA programme application and performance at interview.

The Scholarship Committee will review all elements of your application to assess your potential contribution to the ongoing success of the MBA and commitment to ESCP Business School through ambassadorial work.

Amount of the award

The scholarship amount is €17,500. It may not replace the down payment required to secure a place in the MBA programme. The full amount of the award will be deducted from the balance of the tuition fees for the MBA programme.

Judging panel

The judging panel is made up of members of the Admissions Committee and includes representatives from the ESCP Business School Faculty, the MBA Programme Director and the MBA's Dean. Successful candidates will be notified individually whether successful or not.

How to apply?

You must submit the following documents:

- Completed scholarship application form
- A professional recommendation demonstrating your commitment to contribute to the ongoing development of the NGO/Non-profit sector
- A short essay in answer to the following question:

“With experience working in an NGO or Non-profit organisation, please outline how you would like to support the ongoing development of the NGO/ Non-profit sector.”

Incomplete forms will not be considered. Applications may not be modified once they have been submitted.

All applications must be submitted in English.

Deadline for submission

Please check our website www.escp.eu/mba for the next submission deadline.
